

QuickStart Hands-on Training from Eradani!

Expand your expertise into the latest technologies for IBM i

Beat the Competition

by quickly building the latest in web applications

Protect your Future

by upgrading existing IBM i code to new languages and open source

Modernize Fast

by connecting existing IBM i applications to new technology

Move Quickly

by engaging Eradani experts to augment and guide your development teams

Eradani QuickStart training focuses on “Learn by Doing”, with lots of hands on exercises. By the end of the class, your team will be up and running with the latest technologies!

Node.js and TypeScript

- Setting up your environment
- Web application development concepts
- JavaScript and TypeScript basics
- Connecting web applications to the IBM i

Git and open source tools

- Source control with Git
- Git best practices
- Branching and tagging
- RDi integration
- Builds with Jenkins
- RPM for managing applications

Connecting to the Cloud

- Archiving
- Backup
- Application Deployment
- Public, private, and hybrid

Learn how to bring new technology to your IBM i TODAY!

Eradani Experts are here to help

- Eradani development experts developed the first commercial Node.js and Angular applications for the IBM i.
- Eradani open source experts have been building applications for the IBM i using open source tools like Git for more than a decade.